Cal/OSHA Update: What to Watch for in 2021

Lisa Baiocchi is a senior associate at The Prince Firm, a Santa Rosa, California law firm that concentrates its practice in Cal/OSHA, Fed/OSHA and crisis management. Lisa represents the firm's clients in all aspects of Cal/OSHA and Fed/OSHA administrative process and defense, as well as amicus curiae and appellate briefs. She has also assisted employers with crisis response, improving and updating their safety programs, as well as with managing pre- and post-appeal abatement issues before Cal/OSHA.

Lisa Prince has represented employers in OSHA and Cal/OSHA matters for more than seventeen years. Her firm, The Prince Firm, represents employers ranging from Fortune 500 companies to local small businesses. The firm focuses on all aspects of Cal/OSHA including advocacy during rulemaking, compliance assistance, management of enforcement activity and appeal of citations in addition to safety programs to reduce risks.

Andrew Sommer is managing partner of Conn Maciel Carey LLP's California practice. He represents clients in inspections, investigations, enforcement actions, and notices of alleged hazards involving Cal/OSHA and other state plans, Andrew defends clients against Cal/OSHA citations, advises clients in managing incident and fatality inspections, and assists clients in developing safety programs. He is a frequent speaker at conferences and events and writes extensively on issues related to Cal/OSHA compliance and other employment issues.

Fred Walter is Of Counsel in Conn Maciel Carey's San Francisco, CA office. He provides the full range of workplace safety and health law services, with a special focus on employers' interactions with Cal/OSHA. He has spent more than 35 years working with employers, general counsel, safety directors, risk managers, human resources administrators and safety professionals defending OSHA and Cal/OSHA citations, as well as developing and auditing safety programs to answer regulatory mandates.

Len Welsh is the former Chief of Cal/OSHA. He is currently Principal Consultant with Baker & Welsh, LLC. He is recognized for his expertise and success in litigation and settlement strategies, as well as his skill in forging cooperative relationships between management and labor organizations.

Following his departure from Cal/OSHA in 2011, he served as Counsel and Acting Chief Counsel to the Director of the Department of Industrial Relations. Len has more than 30 years of experience in the practice and administration of occupational safety and health and related environmental law.

ASSP San Francisco, ASSP Sacramento and PASMA have agreed to a combined meeting this month. We look forward to sharing time together during a most interesting and valuable session.
