

Building the Future

Turner's annual construction management training program

Turner Construction and Union Bank are kicking off Turner's annual construction management training program on March 1st in Oakland. Each class provides networking opportunities between other business owners and Turner industry experts that lead the class. The Estimating and Scheduling classes have an additional hands-on exercise that offer participants real life work experiences.

A special thanks to Union Bank for their generous support of our program!

WHO SHOULD ATTEND Local, minority-owned, women-owned, disabled veteran owned, disadvantaged and small emerging businesses that are general contractors, specialty contractors, construction managers and construction consultants.

COST OF THE PROGRAM There is NO COST to program participants however, participation in the training program is a commitment to attend a minimum of 11 classes in order to receive a Certificate of Completion.

CLASS SCHEDULE Classes will be held twice a week on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 6:00 PM to 8:30 PM beginning March 1st ending April 14th. Classes consist of two-hour courses in: Accounting Basics for Contractors, Business Development/Sales, Estimating, Bidding & Procurement, Field Operations, Insurance & Bonding, Management, Project Delivery Systems & Contract Risk Management, Safety, and Scheduling.

SELECTION PROCESS

- There are only 20 spots available. Space is limited, so only one participant per company will be accepted.
- To be considered, your firm must have been in business and actively performing work in the construction industry for at least one year prior to registration.
- This program is only for local, minority-owned, women-owned, disabled veterans, disadvantaged and small emerging businesses.
- If your company is selected, you will be notified no later than Thursday, February 25th.

TO REGISTER Please contact Elena Anaya at 510-267-8241 or eanaya@tcco.com.

Registration deadline is February 23, 2016.
